Medigap

Insurance issued by private insurance companies that provides reimbursement for out-of-pocket medical costs such as

1. Deductibles for Parts A & B
 2. Cost of extended hospitalization under Part A
 3. Coinsurance on doctors' services and outpatient care under Part B
 4. Costs in excess of Medicare-approved charges
 5. Most self-administered prescription drugs
 6. Skilled nursing facility costs regulated by state insurance authorities within guidelines set by the federal government
- 10 standard Medigap plans offer different levels of supplemental coverage (A-D, F, G, K-N).[§] The best time to buy a Medigap policy is during the six month period that begins on the first day of the month in which you are age 65 or older and enrolled in Part B. After this period your option to buy a Medigap policy may be limited and may cost more.

Part C: Medicare Advantage

- A Medicare Advantage Plan is an alternative to Part B. Must be enrolled in Parts A and B to elect a Medicare Advantage Plan. Cannot have a Medigap plan or a Part D plan.
- Part C coverage is available in three forms: managed care plans (e.g., HMOs, PPOs), private fee-for-service plans or medical savings accounts.^{||}
- If you want prescription drug coverage, in most cases you will need to obtain the coverage through your Medicare Advantage Plan.
- Each plan can charge different out-of-pocket costs. You usually pay one monthly premium to the plan, in addition to your Part B premium.

* A person can enroll in Part D anytime if they qualify for the extra help due to low income.

 Surcharges may apply for late enrollment.

† This is the upper limit for a person who is not eligible for a coverage gap discount program or a low income subsidy.

‡ May be higher for individuals with higher income.

§ Plans C and F are not available to beneficiaries who turn 65 on or after January 1, 2020. Special provisions offered in MA, MN and WI.

|| Only available in Pennsylvania.
